CLASS WILL

We of the Senior Class do hereby make this last will and testament. To the following people we bequeath our prized possessions and worldly goods.

Eddie Best--His winning ways with the girls to Oscar Carlile. Oh yes, Oscar, don't forget the flowers, candy, and spraying the car with perfume.

Harley Bonds--His place in the quartet to Noah Barnett.

Charles Cade--His natural curly black hair to Butch Howe.

Bill Clark--His sleeping in class to Johnny Reed.

Paul Cooper--His freckles to "Spec" Hollbrook.

To Nurse Webb, the best truant officer in the state, we will our non-excused admits.

James Cowan--His job at Sooner's to Jackie Paxton.

Ted Davis--His long sideburns and girl friend to Junior Barton. Wear them with pride, Elvis!

Edwin Frantz--His ability to stay out of trouble to Fred Miller. Remember this the next time you get out to feed the cows, Fred.

Jerry Gentry--His "Troubadours" to Terry Gentry.

Clifford Girod--His band of fighting roosters and "Old Crow" to Bones Thompson.

Larry Hefner--His ability to go with tall girls to Jimmy Lorenzino.

Bill Holland--His cute jokes to Burl Peveto.

Robert Jackson--His flat-top to Mr. Best. Now you won't need a toupee.

Bill Kelton--His true love to Hainsey Haines.

Bill Lance--His girl friend to Bill Warren since Billy Boy won't be around next year.

Pat Lewis--His love for red-headed women to Bill Woodell.

Marlin Luna--His love for Mary Bachus in 3rd hour study hall to David Richburg.

Gene McKinnon--His ability to draw "figures" to Grubby Hurt.

Jerry Moss--His streamlined figure to "Fats Domino" Runyan.

Tom Plumlee-His ability to Bop to Bernice Vickery. Go, Jim Dandy!

Jack Potes--His glamorous legs and place in the Chordetts to David Cox. Don't let them lead you astray, David!

Jimmy Stout--His nickname of Vodka to Rodger Gilliland.

To Mr. Merritt and Mr. Stout we will our deepest appreciation for being such wonderful sponsors.

Sammy Sweeten--His "Hot Rod" to Don Kirby.

Don Thompson--His Mad-Mad love affairs to Paul Danyeur. Not that you don't have enough of your own, Paul.

Paul Thompson--His horse to Mrs. Duke.

Alvin Trammell--His choice spot in the parking lot to Earl Dean and Peggy. But be sure and watch the Warden, kids!

Tony Veal--His driving ability to the future driver's training students. His motto is, "Drive with ease, if you please."

Dollie Wilson--Her ability to get two engagement rings to Judy Hammond.

David Williams--His troubles in Bookkeeping to Bob Chaffin.

Becky Walker--Her quiet ways to Elrod Luther Girod. We're not hinting, Elrod!

Rene Ann Baker--Her place as Football Queen to some lucky SOPHOMORE girl. The Juniors have had their chance.

Ellen Worley--Her pony tail to Carolyn Hunt.

Becky Beavers--Her love and ways of getting along with the fellows to Mary Ann Potes.

Linda White--Her brains to Freddie Flowers. Use them well, Freddie.

Treva Bowen--Her pretty long hair to Lauretta Gregory.

Nancy Watson--Her place as a cheerleader to Jan Spradling.

Billie Pat Boom--Her ability to get locked out of the house to Merina Rutherford.

Pat Rutherford--Her ability to throw a party to Gena Braden!

Neatha Brown--Her sweet, friendly ways to Sue Kahlor.

Jackie Mann--Her letters to camp to any girl who needs them.

Annie Lee Chaffin--Her love for a past graduate to Norma Conyer.

Belva Trent--Her cute laugh to Floella White.

Beverly Cowan--Her two dozen roses, box of chocolates and her admirer to Linda Lewis.

Trudy Dirickson--Her faithful boy friend to Lynda Wehunt.

La Jean Frantz--Her "Finger" to Joe Cade.

Wanda Geisen--Her love for wearing blue jeans to Mary McClaren.

Bonnie Hilliard--Her sink full of dirty dishes to Diane Wrenn Murphy.

Betty Kirby--Her quiet ways to Pudgey Braden. Not that you need them, Pudgey!

Wanda Lemmings--Her "hate" for all boys to any girl who wants to be an old maid.

Bobbie Lewis--Her love for "coon hunting" to Pat Spindle. Try it sometime Pat, it's fun.

Nancy McClaren--Her height to Helen Hartzo.

Carol Sekavec--Her love for Robert Jackson and his clever tricks to Patsy Lance. Can you take it, Patsy?????

La Dayne Moore--Her ability to have only one boy friend at a time to Sharon Johnson.

Barbara Peterson--Her ability to write poems to Jerry Wells. Try writing poems instead of excuses, Jerry.

Peggy Peveto--Her ability to teach the boys to dance to Virginia Whiten and Poo Vanoy. Strut your stuff, girls!

To the Juniors we will our seats in assembly.

SIGNED------THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1957

CLASS PROPHECY

It is now the year of 1967, the place, New York City, New York. The Senior Class of 1957 have now become very famous for their acting ability and social standings.

Let's take a tour of New York and see what the Seniors of "57" have done for themselves.

Ah yes, now opening in Madison Square Garden is that famous all-round Cowgirl known as Miss Moo Moo Lewis. Miss Moo Moo is well-known for riding a bull with one hand, waving at her fans with the other and singing "I Want To Be A Cowboy's Sweetheart." Announcing the rodeo is Alvin Trammell. Attending the rodeo is that famous inventor Paul Cooper and his lovely wife, Wanda Lemming. As you all know Paul invented that nutritious - delicious pig food, S-L-O-P!!! It's not only good for pigs but for kids too as you can tell by Paul and Wanda's brood of 15.

After the rodeo people flock to that fabulous gambling casino, "Doro's Dugout." Its owner is Robert Jackson, well-known in his younger days for his POKER PARTIES. Working in "Doro's Dugout" is Marlin Luna as HEAD BARTENDER! The girls running the tables at "Doro's Dugout" are Pat Rutherford and Trudy Dirickson. The floor show is presented by "Bubbling Becky Beavers", who is taking the place of Marlyn Monroe. What Marlyn can't do, BECKY CAN!

Next we journey over to the Place Theater where that former star athlete of S. H. S. is now starring in the role he was meant to play, "Will Success Spoil Donnie Thompson."

Out in the audience we see Bill Lance and his charming blond-headed wife Betty Kirby. Bill always did like blonds you know. Later tonite his famed all-girl basketball team, the "BOUNCING BEAUTIES" consisting of Neatha "Billy Boy" Brown, Nancy "Goose" McClaren, Nancy "Dutch" Watson, Happy Belva Trent, and Ellen "Murph. "Worley. They will play the "PODUNK POLECATS" starring Charles Cade, Jerry Moss, Sammy Sweeten, Bill Clark, and Edwin Frantz, coached by that outstanding coach Paul "Beanpole" Thompson.

During intermission we came across that internationally known track star, Beverly Cowan. Seemed like she acquired her skill running all this time from that SAME Senior boy.

Carol Sekavec has made nation-wide headlines. Seems like Carol always did like more than one boy. She believes in "Cheaper by the Dozen" and now is living way back in the hills of Utah with her 52 husbands.

Now we make our way over to Radio City where the great "Ready Teddy" Davis is now recording his new hit tune, "ME! ME!ME!" Providing the background music is that group that made such a SMASH hit at good ole S. H. S. -----Jerry Gentry and his TROUPADOURS, which now have gained two more members; Larry Hefner and Bill Kelton.

Rehearsing across the hall from "Ready Teddy" we see that famous ballet star, La Fe Fe Frantz working with her manager "Barbellis Best". Incidentally she is slated for a command performance for the Duke of S. H. S.

As we go across town we see the largest girdle factory in the world, owned by Peggy Peveto. Her motto is "MERT'S GERT'S MAKE THE FLIRTS!" Touring the factory we see such beautiful models as Linda White, Barbara Peterson, and Dollie Wilson.

Our next stop is Coney Island where we find Tom Plumlee, the head Barker, trying to entice onlookers to see the "Queens of Quiver", starring "Fannie Annie" and Minnie Moves-er Mann known to you as Annie Lee Chaffin and Jackie Mann. Some of the spectators are, Harley Bonds, the mortician; Bill Holland, the band leader; Pat Lewis, the playboy; Gene McKinnion, the artist; Jack Potes, a famous orator (he got his bachelor of oratory from Penn. University, in other words he got his B. O. from P. U.) Hanging from the rafters we see Jimmy Stout, a famed actor, who had taken Lassie's place in the movies; Tony Veal, a highway patrolman; and James Cowan, owner of Sack Your Pak food stores.

Another interesting sight is The Rooster Boosters, owned and operated by Clifford Girod, a new name for the Chicken fights. Becky Walker is his chief assistant.

A sudden explosion draws our attention to the sky and we find out that the mad scientist David Williams has just launched his Rocket Ship, "Speedo," to the moon. His passengers are Billie Pat Wilson Boom, Bonnie Hillard, Wanda Cottle Giesen and Treva Monger Bowen and their husbands, who are going to set up housekeeping on the Moon.

Rene Ann Baker has taken Hilda's place on the television series "December Bride." By the way kids she's lost her 20 inch waist-line.

La Dayne Moore is manager of the Green Lounge. And instead of "What's behind the Green Door" its now"WHAT'S BEHIND MOORE'S DOOR!"

Thus, ends our tour into the future of the Seniors of "57"

CLASS HISTORY

If the future is to be determined by the pattern of the historical progress, then we proudly present this history of the graduating Senior Class of 1957. This history is accurately and respectively submitted.

Our school careers began that bright and sunny September morning in 1945. Starting to Mrs. Haste and Mrs. King at Washington were Neatha Brown, Betty Kirby, Peggy Peveto, Edwin Frantz, Clifford Girod, Sam Sweeten, Don Thompson, Alvin Trammell, Becky Walker, Billie Wilson Boom, and Carol Sekavec; who joined us from Ardmore.

The first grade teachers at Cameron, Mrs. Glass and Mrs. La Suer, began their long struggle with our rivals, Paul Cooper, Jack Potes, Jimmy Stout, Ted Davis, Marlin Luna, Jerry Gentry, Treva Monger Bowen, La Dayne Moore, and Nancy Watson.

In the second grade, two students were added to the Cameron forces. Wanda Lemmings came from far-away Roff, Robert Jackson from McAlester, and Nancy Watson moved to Tucson, Arizona. It seems Robert and Marlin were extra good buddies. Remember when they used to push each other out the windows at school?

Washington gained Annie Lee Chaffin from New Mexico, and La Jean Frantz. We lost Carol Sekavec to Cameron. In early grade school days, Annie Lee was the bashful type but through the years, a different story has been handed down. She is now known as "Miss Astor" or "Ardent Annie".

The third grade saw Cameron gain Wanda Cottle Geisen from Clovis, New Mexico. We finally won the fight over Carol Sekavec with Cameron when she decided to honor us with her presence at Washington. Ted Davis also came from Cameron, and Bill Kelton came from "Doro's" hometown, McAlester. Oh Yes! Remember kids, this was the year that Alvin Trammell's and Peggy Peveto's hot romance started. We are sorry to say it just lasted for three years.

We the Seniors of '57 still aren't a big class by a long shot. However, we did make three new gains. Ellen Worley came from California, Bill Clark from Stillwater, and Harley Bonds from Ardmore, to join the Washington and Cameron fourth grade classes.

Ah! The fifth grade, the grade of blossoming romance--and disaster. Remember when Harley Bonds used to call Jackie Mann on the phone after school nearly every day? And when Peggy Peveto was riding Don Thompson's horse and was thrown? This year Jackie Mann came from Big Canyon to Washington, while Annie Lee Chaffin switched over to Cameron, and Nancy Watson decided to move back from Tucson.

The sixth grade, our last year in grade school. Jerry Moss, Hickory; Tony Veal, Bristow; and Betty Kirby from Washington; became members of Cameron's sixth grade class, while Washington gained only one new member, Rene Ann Baker from Granite.

At long last we are the big kids of Junior High--The Seventh Graders--ready to take our big step toward graduation. This year Gene McKinnon from McAlester, Bobbie Lewis from Granite, Belva Trent from Iona, and Eddie "Barbel" Best from Vinson; joined our class.

In our second year in Junior High we gained David Williams from Oklahoma City, Bill Holland from Muskogee, and Larry Hefner from Oklahoma City. The O.G. & E. plant really helped populate our class this year.

The Freshman year we lost La Dayne Moore to Trousdale and regained her all in the same year. We also gained five new class members besides La Dayne. The Cowan twins, James and Beverly came from Gene Autry, Linda White from Big Canyon, Billie Wilson Boom from Fairview, and Dollie Wilson from Waurika.

In our Sophomore year Wanda Geisen decided to come back from Ft. Worth and graduate with us, Trudy Dirickson came from our rival town, Davis; Nancy McClaren from Fairland, and Bill Lance came from Daugherty. La Dayne Moore changed her mind again and moved to Texas this year.

We are Juniors now, and ready to attend the Junior-Senior Banquet. We were joined this year by Tom Plumlee of Cordell, Charles Cade from Dunbar School, Barbara Peterson from Utica, and oh yes, La Dayne moved to Sulphur from Asher. This year Bobbie Lewis was elected as the Round-Up Club Queen, Peggy Peveto was selected as the Rodeo Queen, Becky Walker was chosen to represent Sulphur at Oklahoma Girls' State, and Linda White received the D.A.R. award.

The long awaited Senior year! We, the Seniors of 1957, have collected five new classmates and members, Pat Rutherford, Becky Beavers from India, Betty Wood from Ada, and the Cope twins, Earline and Geraldine from Chickasha.

We are proud to be represented by Rene Ann Baker as Football Queen, and Bobbie Lewis as Letterman's Club Sweetheart. Barbara Peterson, who has had a poem published, is a member of the National High School Poetry Association. Also, we are happy to have a Senior, Peggy Peveto, as editor of the Annual this year.

Our graduating Senior Class has been very active in the various activities in school. We have 9 football players, 3 basketball players, 11 F.F.A. members, 13 Letterman's Club members, 2 Key Club boys, 5 band students, 7 Glee Club girls, 11 Mixed Chorus members, 8 Bulldog Boosters, 3 Cheerleaders, 8 Student Council members, 7 Annual Staff, 7 Hi-Ways Staff, 4 Office Staff, 4 Student Librarians, 9 Air Scouts, 4 Presidents' Club, 3 Track boys, 6 Baseball players, 6 N.H.S. members, and 7 O.H.S. members.

We the 1957 Seniors are proud to have Mr. Buford Merritt and Mr. Foy Stout as our sponsors this year, and Mr. J.B. Best as our Senior Counselor.
